

New words and arrangement created for the Unite for Europe march in support of the European Union on 25 March 2017

The Internationale

Words: Ian Miles (2017)

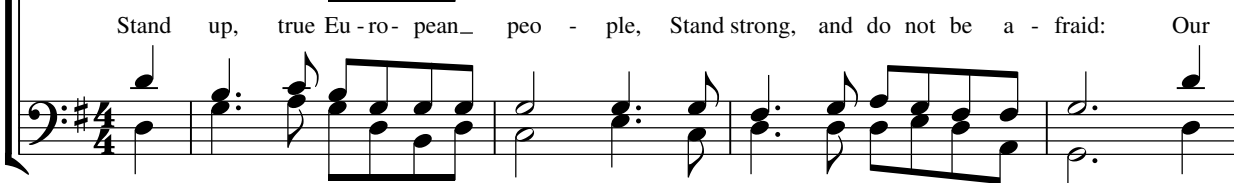

Music: Pierre Degeyter (1888)

Arrangement: Liz Garnett (2017)

SOPRANO
ALTO

TENOR
BASS

Stand up, true Eu-ro-pean_ peo - ple, Stand strong, and do not be a - fraid: Our

5

lov - ing sis-ter-hood of na - tions Shall ne - ver e-ver be be-trayed. What - ev - er false-hoods those who rule us May vain-ly plead our na - tion said, We'll chall - enge all who sought to fool us And loud-ly,

10

15

Refrain

proud-ly march a - head: Loos-ing hands from dear neigh - bours Ne-ver was 'the Peo-ple's Will': Our 21

Eu - ro - pe - an Un - ion In - cludes Great Bri - tain still! Loos - ing hands from dear neigh - bours Ne - ver

27 was 'the Peo - ple's Will': Our Eu - ro - pe - an Un - ion In - cludes Great Bri - tain still!

1.

Stand up, true European people,
Stand strong and do not be afraid:
Our loving sisterhood of nations
Shall never, ever be betrayed!
Whatever falsehoods those who rule us
May vainly plead our nation said,
We'll challenge all who sought to fool us
And loudly, proudly march ahead:
Refrain:

Loosing hands from dear neighbours
Never was 'the People's Will':
Our European Union
Includes Great Britain still!

2.

When Cam'ron called his referendum
Just 3 in 8 advised to Leave:
While May would seize those votes and bend (th)em,
All we who care, she'll ne'er deceive!
Let's stand for truth in public service,
Decry the lies of Brexiteers,
Hold fast for decency and justice
Today and through our future years.

3.

To hopeful, helpful friends and neighbours
We'll offer welcome and our thanks,
Whose laughter, liberty and labours
Count more than borders, bonds or banks.
We'll make society more equal,
Nor turn a friend in need away;
We'll strive to keep our planet peaceful
And cleaner, greener day by day.

4.

And when fresh hist'ry-books are written
To mark the first post-conflict age,
We'll proudly celebrate that Britain
Held high her head upon that stage.
Away with tyranny and twisting,
Have done with profit-driven lies;
True democrats, today resisting,
Aspire to gain that greater prize!

NB: The key of G major was chosen to make the melody accessible to the vocal ranges of people who may not be confident on a harmony part but who would like to sing the tune. The parts are written such that the whole can be sung in A major for choral performance where mass participation is not anticipated.